Landlord may terminate this Lease for any reason by giving Tenant 30 (thirty) days written notice. If Landlord terminates this Lease, Tenant will not be responsible for any remaining Rent after the expiration of the 30 (thirty) day period.

19) NOTICE OF INJURIES

If Tenant or any of Tenant's invitees, licensees, and/or guests are significantly injured, or any of Tenant's personal property is damaged on the Property or in any common area, Tenant shall provide written notice to Landlord, to be delivered or sent to the address where Rent payments are sent, as soon as possible but in no event later than 5 (five) days after the date of injury or damage. In case of abandonment, however, Landlord may immediately enter and re-take the Property as permitted under applicable law and terminate this Lease, with no notice to Tenant. Landlord may also dispose of any of Tenant's belongings in accordance with applicable Wyoming law.

22) NOTICE OF ABSENCE

If Tenant plans to leave the Property for 7 (seven) or more consecutive days or expects long, frequent or customary absences, Tenant must notify the Landlord in writing. Tenant hereby agrees that any such absence, whether a singular occurrence or customary, shall not obviate Tenant's obligation to pay timely Rent.

Prior to the natural expiration of this Lease, Tenant shall give Landlord 30 (thirty) days written notice of Tenant's intention to surrender the Property at the end of the Lease term.

If Tenant does not provide timely written notice to Landlord of Tenant's intent to surrender or Tenant does not vacate the Property at the end of the Lease term or otherwise remains in possession of the Property, a new month-to-month tenancy will be created which will be subject to all the terms and conditions of this Lease. Such month-to-month tenancy will remain valid until such time as Landlord and Tenant, in writing, extend or renew the Lease for a specific term. If Tenant becomes a month-to-month Tenant, Tenant must give 30 (thirty) days written notice to Landlord of Tenant's intent to surrender the Property. Landlord may terminate such a month-to-month tenancy at any time by serving Tenant a written notice of termination or by other means permitted by applicable Wyoming law. Tenant shall vacate the Property at Landlord's demand.

28) MATERIALITY OF REPRESENTATIONS ON APPLICATION

Any and all representations made by Tenant on any Application For Rental of the Property (or similarly-titled and applicable document) are understood by the Parties to be material to the grant of this Lease. Any failure to disclose or lack of truthfulness on such Application may be cause for Landlord to deem Tenant in breach of this Lease.

29) MODIFICATION

No modification of this Lease shall be binding upon Landlord unless in writing and signed by Landlord. Modification to any part or sub-part of this Lease shall have no effect on any other part or sub-part of this Lease, and the remainder of the Lease shall remain in full force and effect.

30) RECORDING OF LEASE

Tenant shall not record this Lease on the Public Records of any public office. In the event that Tenant shall record this Lease, this Lease shall, at Landlord's option, terminate immediately and Landlord shall be entitled to all rights and remedies that Landlord has at law or in equity.

31) REMEDIES

The rights and remedies contained in this Lease are not exclusive of any other rights and remedies allowed by applicable Wyoming law and shall be considered cumulative.

32) SEVERABILITY

If any part of sub-part of this agreement is deemed invalid by court order, judgment or other operation of law, the remaining parts and sub-parts of this agreement shall remain valid and enforceable to the fullest extent.

33) HEIRS AND ASSIGNS

Tenant may not transfer or assign this Lease or any portion of this Lease to a third party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all covenants of this Lease shall succeed to and be binding upon any heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns of the parties.

34) NO WAIVER

If Landlord fails to enforce strict performance of any part or sub-part of this Lease, this shall not be construed as a waiver of Landlord's right to enforce the same part or sub-part later in time or to enforce any other part or sub-part.

35) ATTORNEYS' FEES

In the event either party is required to enforce any provision under this Lease, then the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's and other costs incurred in enforcing their rights under this Lease.

36) DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

In the event that the Property is damaged or destroyed or otherwise rendered wholly uninhabitable by any natural cause, such as fire, earthquake, storm or other act not caused by Tenant or Tenant's negligence, this Lease shall terminate as of the date of such destruction. At that point, the Rent shall be accounted for up to the time of such destruction as if prorated as of that date. If only a portion of the Property is rendered uninhabitable, the Landlord shall have the option to either repair such portion or terminate the Lease. If Landlord decides to repair such portion, the Rent shall abate in proportion to the portion of the Property that is uninhabitable for a time, and Landlord shall make the repairs as quickly as practicable, after which, the full Rent shall recommence, and the Lease shall continue according to its terms.

37) EMINENT DOMAIN

Should the Property be taken by eminent domain, the Lease shall terminate, and the Rent shall be prorated as of the date.

38) GOVERNING LAW

This Lease is governed, construed, and interpreted by and through the laws of the State of Wyoming.

39) NOTICES

Notices given under this Lease or other applicable Wyoming law shall be given in writing by and to both parties. Landlord or Landlord's agents, including any property managers, secretaries, or assistants, shall accept demands and/or service of process at the same address. Notices by Landlord to Tenant shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the mail to the address of the Property or hand delivered or placed in the mailbox of Tenant at the Property. Notices by Landlord to Tenant shall also be deemed delivered if addressed to a last known post office box address of Tenant. Notice to one Tenant shall be deemed sufficient as notice to all tenants.

40) LEAD-BASED PAINT

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, lessors must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention.

41) QUIET ENJOYMENT

42) LOCKS

Tenant shall not alter or replace any locks on the Property without the written consent of Landlord. Tenant shall also not add any new locks on the Property without the consent of Landlord. If Tenant installs any additional locks (with Landlord's consent), the locks shall stay on the Property at the expiration of the Lease and will become part of Landlord's Property.

43) PETS

Any and all pets or companion animals, with the exception of service animals as dictated by applicable state and federal law, are prohibited under the terms of this Lease.

44) COUNTERPARTS

This Lease may be executed in counterparts, all of which shall constitute a single agreement. If the dates set forth at the end of this document are different, this Lease is to be considered effective as of the date that both Parties have signed the agreement, which may be the later date.
