I.

First Parties grant and convey to Second Party, an easement for the erection, construction, reconstruction, replacement, removal, maintenance, repair, alteration, inspection, and use of a line of towers, poles, or other supports with such wires and cables as Second Party shall, from time to time, suspend therefrom for the transmission of electrical energy, television signals, and waves, and all necessary and proper foundations, footings, crossarms and other appliances and fixtures for use in connection with said towers, poles, wires and cables, together with a right-of-way on, along, over and across the following described lands which are situate in Sheridan County, State of Wyoming, to-wit:

It is understood that Second Party shall use presently established roadway and that the pole line shall remain in present location.

II.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD that the easement for said transmission line shall not exceed twenty feet in width and that the First Parties shall have the full right to use and enjoy the premises being crossed by said transmission line, including the right to construct fences or corrals in the area so long as Second Party has access through said lands for the purposes of this easement. First Parties agree not to erect or construct any building or other structure within said twenty-foot strip which will in any way prevent the Second Party from exercising the right of ingress and egress given by this Agreement.

III.

Second Party shall have the further right to use any and all gates now found in the fences which cross or shall hereafter cross said twenty-foot strip. Second Party shall properly close any gates while making use of the easement and right of way herein granted. IV.

Second Party shall also have the right from time to time, to trim and to cut down and to clear away any and all trees and brush now or hereafter on said strip and shall have the further right from time to time, to trim and cut down and clear away any trees on either side of said strip which now or hereafter in the opinion of Second Party may be a hazard to said towers, poles, wires or cables, by reason of the danger of falling thereon, provided, however, that all trees which Second Party is hereby authorized to cut and remove, if valuable for timber or wood shall continue to be the property of First Parties, but all tops, lops, brush and refuse shall be burned or removed by Second Party.

VI.

Second Party shall repair any damage it shall do to First Parties' private roads or lanes on said lands, and shall indemnify First Parties against any loss and damage which shall be caused by the exercise of said ingress and egress.

VII.

Second Party expressly agrees:

- (a) To save and hold First Parties harmless from any liability to persons or property, including property damage sustained by First Parties, from the operation of said line, road, and in the use and operation thereof, and Second Party shall carry insurance for such purpose and upon request show First Parties certificates of insurance.
- (b) To limit all vehicles owned or operated by it, or operating on behalf of Second Party under separate contract, to a speed of not-to-exceed 15 miles per hour while using said right of way.
- (c) To furnish First Parties with television service when the same shall be furnished to other rural homes in the proximity of the dwelling of the First Parties located on the above described tract, without cost or liability to First Parties for services and maintenance, subject to Wyoming Public Service Commission requirements.
- (d) To pay to First Parties the sum of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) per year as rental for the use of said premises and privilege of said easement and right-of-way; that First Parties acknowledge receipt from Second Party of the payment of rental for the first year; that all subsequent payments in the amount of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) shall be paid by Second Party to First Parties on or before the 9th day of September each year, commencing on September 9, 1963.

VIII.

First Parties and Second Party agree that the provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and bind personal representatives, assigns, successors and transferees and that the covenants and conditions herein contained shall run with the land, forever.

IX.

The bankruptcy, insolvency, or the failure to promptly perform and do any of the obligations herein contained, or to perform the same in a good, faithful and workmanlike manner of the Second Party, its successors, assigns or transferees, shall, at the option of the First Parties, give the First Parties the right to terminate and cancel this agreement, to retain all moneys paid hereunder as liquidated damages and to cancel the rights and privileges hereunder granted with the exception that Second Parties shall have the right to enter and remove its poles and equipment. Provided, however, First Parties shall not terminate or cancel this agreement without first notifying Second Party of such default in writing, and Second Party shall then have thirty days within which to correct said default and if said default be not corrected within said time, First Parties may then terminate and cancel said Agreement as above indicated. In the event Second Party is prohibited from curing such default because of an act of God, Second Party shall have a reasonable time within which to cure such default, even though the same be more than thirty days.
