PARTY WALL AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and Entered this 24th day of September, 1910 by and between John B. Kendrick, of Sheridan, Wyoming, party of the first part, (hereinafter called the first party) and C.B. Godwin and Willard Waldo, of the same place, parties of the second part, (hereinafter called the second parties);

Witnesseth: That Whereas, the second parties are about to erect a two story brick building on the following described real estate in Sheridan, Wyoming, to-wit, Commencing at a point Seventy-four feet Six inches south of the North-west corner of lot Twenty-one of Block Seven of Grinnell Addition to the City of Sheridan, Wyoming, on the East line of Main Street, at the center of the south wall of the Kendrick building, thence running East a distance of seventy-five feet to the east line of Lot seventeen of said Block, thence running south twenty-five feet six inches to a point, thence running west seventy-five feet to Main Street, thence north along the east side of Main street twenty-five feet and six inches, to the place of beginning, the said tract of land being twenty-five feet six inches wide and seventy-five feet in length, and being a part of Lot seventeen, and nineteen and twenty-one of said Block seven; and

Whereas, the first party is the owner of all the rest of said lot seventeen, nineteen and twenty-one, lying south of the above described parcel of land; and

Whereas, the said parties are desirous of entering into a party wall agreement whereby one-half of the south wall, foundation and foundation footing of the building to be built by the second parties shall be placed on the land of the first party, the said first party to pay for that part of said wall, foundation and foundation footing, situated on his land, whenever whenever the first party shall hereafter construct a building upon the said land owned by him, the said wall to be two stories high above the ground and sixty-two feet, more or less, in length.

NOW THEREFORE, the first party, in consideration of the premises, and the sum of One Dollar to him in hand paid by the second parties, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, hereby grants and conveys to the second parties, their heirs and assigns, the right and easement to build one-half of the south wall, foundation and foundation footing of the building intended to be erected by the second parties on their land, hereinbefore described, on the said land of the first party, it being understood and agreed by and between said parties that the brick wall above the ground shall be 13 inches in thickness; the foundation shall be 16 inches in thickness and the foundation footing shall be 30x10 inches in thickness. The first party covenants and agrees that if at any time hereafter he, or his heirs or assigns, shall erect a building upon his said land he will pay to the second parties the cost of building the one-half of said wall, foundation and foundation footing, situated upon his land as aforesaid; the cost thereof to be determined in the following manner, to-wit: if the first party cannot agree with the second parties then and in that event each party hereto shall appoint one disinterested appraiser and the two appraisers so selected shall appoint some disinterested third party, and these three appraisers so selected shall appraise and fix a sum which shall represent the cost of the south half of said wall foundation and foundation footing situated on the property of said first party, and when said sum is so ascertained, fixed and certified by said appraisers the first party shall pay said amount forthwith to the second parties. The second parties covenant and agree that said wall, foundation, and foundation footing shall be built of good material and in a first class workmanlike manner.

It is further understood and agreed by and between the parties that upon the construction of a building by the first party, as aforesaid, and the ascertainment and appraisement of one half of the wall, as aforesaid, and the payment of the cost thereof, as hereinbefore provided, then the first party shall be and become the owner of the south one-half of said wall, foundation and foundation footing and shall then have the right to use the said wall jointly with the second parties for building purposes.

It is further expressly understood and agreed that this agreement shall be binding upon each of the parties hereto, and upon each of their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

WITNESS our hands this 24th day of September, 1910.
