grant permission to the Wyoming Department of Transportation (WYDOT), its employees, agents, contractors and assigns to enter upon and temporarily use the property described and shown on the plans and/or exhibits for the above mentioned highway project, which are attached hereto and part of this Agreement when applicable. The plans and/or exhibits sheets attached have been fully explained to the landowner. This Agreement includes the right of ingress and egress, and also the right to temporarily operate machinery upon the property for the purpose of soils mapping, inventory and/or foundation studies. WYDOT will investigate the property in search of stone, gravel, sand or soil of a quality and quantity for use by the WYDOT in construction of highway projects.

Operations are to include the use of equipment and vehicles for the purpose of digging, drilling, sounding, boring, extracting samples and testing of said materials or resources. Entry will be made during reasonable hours, and after actual notice to the landowner of times of entry.

Upon completion of the project, the Landowner further permits the WYDOT to enter upon said property to remove any equipment and apparatus placed thereon, said permission being conditioned upon the WYDOT its agents, employees or assigns restoring the property to its original condition, less normal usage and wear.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successors, heirs or assigns of the parties hereto.
2. The State of Wyoming and the Wyoming Department of Transportation do not waive sovereign immunity by entering into this contract.

3. Tax Clause-Pursuant to the 1986 Tax Reform Act, the WYDOT may be required to report all or a portion of the consideration contained in this permit to the Internal Revenue Service. This reporting in no way creates a tax liability in itself as the type of payment. The individual handling of the proceeds of this transaction are the responsibility of the landowner. In cooperation with the law, rules and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service, the landowner hereby lists below the Tax I.D. Number or Social Security Number, whichever the case may be for the WYDOT use in reporting as required by law.
