DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS CAUSE came on regularly for trial this 22nd day of March, 1989, before the Court, sitting without a jury, upon the pleadings on file herein; and the Plaintiff appeared in person and through her attorney, Richard Mathey. Defendant failed to appear either personally or through counsel. The Court, having examined the pleadings on file herein and the records of this case and having heard all of the evidence adduced and the proofs offered and now being well and sufficiently advised in the premises, finds as follows:

1. The Defendant has been duly served with Summons as provided by law in this matter, as shown by the records of this Court; the Defendant has not answered or otherwise pleaded to the Complaint filed against him herein; the time within which the Defendant may answer or otherwise plead has not been extended; the Defendant is not actively serving with the military service of the United States nor with any nation with which the United States is allied; the Defendant is not an infant or incompetent and has not been legally excused from answering or otherwise pleading to the Complaint filed against him herein; and default has been duly entered herein by the Sweetwater County Clerk of District Court as shown by the Certificate of Default on file with said Clerk.

2. Plaintiff has resided in the State of Wyoming for more than sixty (60) days immediately preceding the time of filing of this action, was a resident of Sweetwater County at the time of such filing and now resides in Green River, Sweetwater County, Wyoming.

3. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties hereto, their marriage, their child and their property.

4. The Plaintiff and Defendant were married to one another on May 27, 1978, at Lewistown, Fergus County, Montana, and ever since that time have been, and now are, husband and wife.

5. Plaintiff and Defendant have one (1) child born as issue of this marriage, Randy Richard Shepard, born October 9, 1983. Said child is in the custody of Plaintiff.

6. Child custody, support, visitation and a property division have not been agreed upon by the parties, and therefore must be made by the Court taking into consideration the child's best interests and the various property of the parties and indebtedness of the parties as described by Plaintiff. b. Defendant is an able-bodied man, currently employed, and is capable of paying to Plaintiff the reasonable sum of Three Hundred Forty Dollars ($340.00) per month for the support and maintenance of said minor child, and Plaintiff requests that Defendant be ordered to pay said amount to Plaintiff until Randy Richard Shepard attains the age of majority, dies, marries or becomes self-supporting, whichever shall first occur.

c. Defendant should be entitled to collect any monies realized from the rental of said property.
